Early Intervention Services: IFSP Process

		45 Days			30 Days
				[
ild	Family	Child and	Eligibility	IFSP	IFSP

about a child's development	referred to single	contacted	c •1
	cinalo		family	determined	developed	implemented development	Siligie	by local	assessed		_	-
-	point of	Infants and
	entry	Toddlers
	Š	Program
process begins when your child is referred to the Infants and Toddlers Program. Referrals can come from	referral is made, your early intervention team has 45 days to complete your child's screening, evaluations	is done quickly because young children ages birth to two are at a critical age where much	process is a joint one, with service providers and families working together, getting to know each other, and building trust	meeting will include the parent, your service coordinator, and maybe some staff who helped do the evaluations.	services in the IFSP must begin within 30 days of the parent giving consent to begin. These services can include speech therapy	process is ongoing, meaning that it is reviewed every 6 months to check on the outcomes and services done.
parents, doctors, or other professionals in the forms of a phone call, fax or email to a single point of entry.	and assessments, and develop an IFSP.	learning and brain development happens. It is important that once a child is eligible, services begin as soon as possible.	with one another. You may share as much or as little information as you choose.	At this first meeting, you can even invite other family members, friends, child care providers, and anyone who might share information about your child.	therapy, occupational therapy, or other types of therapies and consultations.	You may also request a review anytime you want. Your service coordinator is the best person to contact if you have questions or other concerns.

Source: A Family Guide to Understanding the IFSP